"Kara Kwan's poetry, with the vivid imagery of her poems, is a striking way to explore the world of English as its world is, especially as in English people can speak only one language. Her poems are so lively and complex that they seem to come from a universal sense and an ability to speak in the world as a whole." - James O'Neill, Professor of English Literature "A huge success and we could be very successful here. It's a great idea. It's a success and we're very excited by it, I would love to be a part of it..
